VN Bags Launch Heavy-Weight Travel Backpack

Designed for consumers who want maximum carrying capacity and protection

COLUMBUS, Ohio – VN Bags announced today the release of the Heavy-Weight Travel Backpack, the ultimate carry-all for every traveling need.

The design features a fixed laptop sleeve for secure traveling protection, holding devices with up to a 15.6” display. An internal gray pocket contains revolutionary RFID material to protect personal data from theft, and the TSA checkpoint-approved design unzips to lay flat. Containing an oversized main compartment with multiple zippered pockets for organization and an extra-large capacity, the backpack can easily be used as a carry-on bag.

The streamlined design features a stylish V-shaped pattern, strong Nylon fabric, and water resistant wicking material to protect valuables against all types of weather. Additionally, the bag offers molded, cushioned shoulder straps and a design that maximizes air flow and temperature control for all-day comfort.

The VN Heavy-Weight Travel Backpack will be available in a variety of colors. For more information, please visit vnbags.com.
