DELSEY partners with Marie Claire

This past March, DELSEY partnered with Marie Claire magazine. As part of the partnership, DELSEY provided luggage for the Marie Claire Power Trip, an exclusive, first-of-its-kind in-flight networking experience and pop-up conference. A select group of women at the top of their fields joined Marie Claire and its roster for this unique 36-hour experience. A chartered JetBlue flight transported the attendees from New York City on March 21 and flew to San Francisco, where the most powerful names in tech, media, fashion and policy met for an unrivaled power networking event that took place at the W Hotel in San Francisco. Each attendee who traveled to San Francisco received a DELSEY CHATELET carry-on bag to travel to the event in style.

Power Trip speakers and attendees included: Tyra Banks, Drew Barrymore, Tracee Ellis Ross, Jill Furman (Hamilton Producer), Jennifer Hyman (CEO, Rent the Runway), Payal Kadakia (founder of ClassPass), Moj Mahdara (CEO, Beautycon Media), Bethany Mota (YouTube star), Gwyneth Paltrow, and Lauren Bush Lauren, among other notables.

DELSEY and Marie Claire each share a common French heritage and also value empowered women that seek adventure. As part of the partnership, DELSEY's CHATELET was featured in Marie Claire's "The Mix" in their June 2016 issue.
