FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Innovative Travel Goods Leader, LifeGear Design Inc, Announces Partnership with Numinous London™

Mare Island, CA (July 29, 2016) LifeGear Design, Inc. signed an agreement this week to distribute Numinous London™, a secure and SMART collection of luggage and bags.

Numinous London™ is an innovative luxury brand of luggage based in the heart of the vibrant city of London. The products are carefully designed and constructed using the highest quality of materials and leather, and carefully put together by an elite team of product tailors. Technical engineers then add and test innovative technology including Bio-Metric (fingerprint) locks, anti-puncture zips, anti-slash fabric layers, and in-built phone and tablet chargers. The Numinous London™ team is driven to continually innovate and create new and exciting products to make travel easier, more secure and more relaxing. For more information go to:

“LifeGear Design was the obvious choice for a strong partner when looking to expand the Numinous London™ collection into the North America market, with the highest standard of customer service and ethics renowned in the industry. LifeGear Design is an essential and strong partner to ensure the growth and success of the brand in North America” Jason Lowe Numinous London

LifeGear Design, founded in 2013, is based in the San Francisco bay area and is the creator and distributor of the LiteGear® brand, an earth-friendly collection of lightweight luggage, travel bags and accessories. LiteGear is sold on line and in specialty retail stores across America. For more information go to: www.LiteGearBags.com www.facebook.com/LiteGearTravelBags

“Innovation, quality and luxury are what defines Numinous London products and a team of creative, professional and charming people are what defines their corporate culture,” said Magi Raible, CEO and Creative Director of LiteGear, “The perfect compliment to our LiteGear brand, our values and our incredible retail partners across the country”.

LifeGear Design is currently accepting orders for Numinous London and will be fulfilling those orders by the end of August 2016. Please contact Magi Raible at Magi@lifegeardesign.com.
