Two New Hires Welcomed at WallyBags

Katie Mueller

Katlyn Snively

WALLYBAGS® ANNOUNCES THE ADDITION of Katie Mueller as senior account manager/marketing and Katlyn Snively as account manager/operations. Mueller will be responsible for driving revenue with new business and specialty/volume sales, overseeing the social media operations, and supporting marketing initiatives that will contribute to the growth of WallyBags' business objectives. She joins the team from Stevenson University in Maryland, where she managed the annual giving efforts and planned alumni events, as well as promoted philanthropic initiatives.

Snively will oversee the business functions, including customer support, order management and accounting, as well as assist in all activities related to general operations. She will be taking over for Barbara Beal, who retired after 18 years of service in August 2018. Snively joins WallyBags after graduating from Shippensburg University in May 2018 and will be a key player in the operations of the business as well as manage relationships with our customers.
